

When we arrived at the Cathedral, it was a very hollow but colossal place. Most people felt emotional; I felt very calm and collected. What I liked the most was the prayer stations. It made me feel happy and generous how we were writing positive things. It's time to move on to secondary and make many, many more memories! I felt very safe and felt like I was in God's hands.

Charlie