

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tick the sentence that best describes each of these animals.

SNAIL

- I have a skeleton inside my body.
- I have a skeleton outside my body.
- I have a shell to protect my body.

FISH

- My skin is hard which protects my body.
- I have a skeleton to protect my body.
- I don't need any protection.

CRAB

- I have a skeleton inside my body.
- I have an outer skeleton, like armour.
- I have a shell to protect my body.

DOG

- My skeleton is outside my body.
- I have a shell that protects me.
- I have a skeleton inside my body.

WORM

- I have a skeleton inside my body.
- I have a shell to protect me.
- I have nothing to protect me.

SPIDER

- My skeleton is outside my body.
- I have a shell that protects me.
- I have a skeleton inside my body.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Can you use different sources of information to find out how these invertebrates support and protect themselves with no skeleton inside their bodies?

SNAIL

SPIDER

CRAB

STARFISH

Name: _____

Date: _____

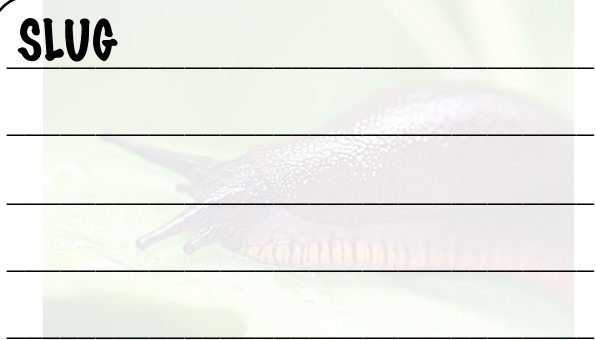

Can you use different sources of information to find out how these invertebrates support and protect themselves with no skeleton inside their bodies?

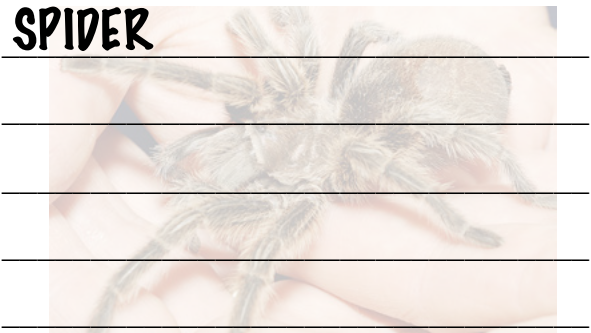

SNAIL

SLUG

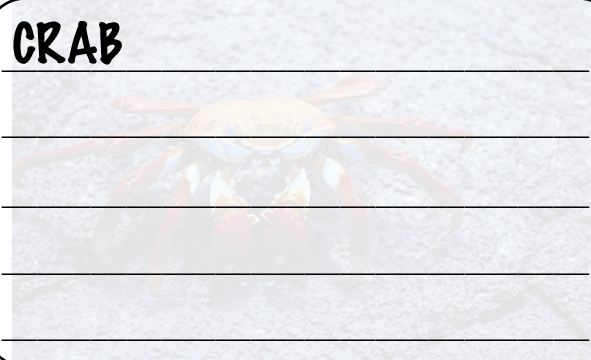

SPIDER

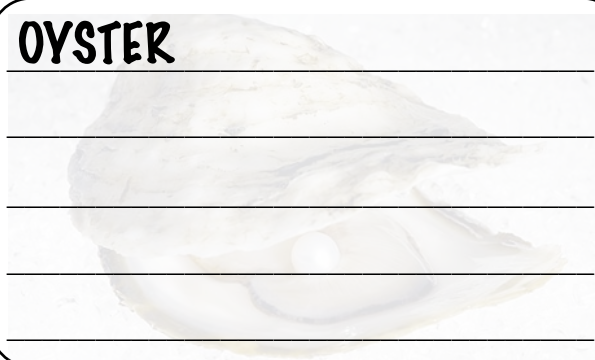

ANT

CRAB

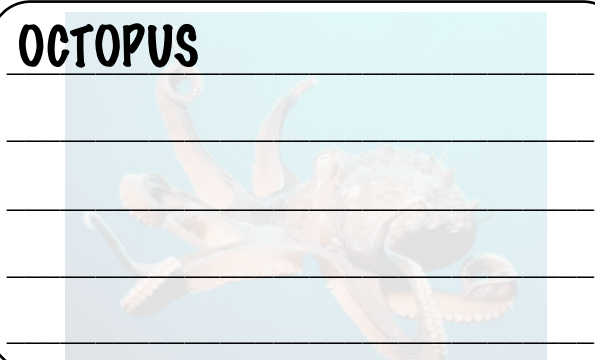

OYSTER

STARFISH

OCTOPUS

Internal Skeleton

I have a skeleton inside my body to protect my organs and help me move.

External Skeleton

I have a skeleton outside my body to protect my organs and help me move.

Protective Shell

I have a shell that protects parts of my body.

No Protection

I don't have a skeleton or a shell to protect my body.

Internal Skeleton

I have a skeleton inside my body to protect my organs and help me move.

External Skeleton

I have a skeleton outside my body to protect my organs and help me move.

Protective Shell

I have a shell that protects parts of my body.

No Protection

I don't have a skeleton or a shell to protect my body.

Dog

Fish

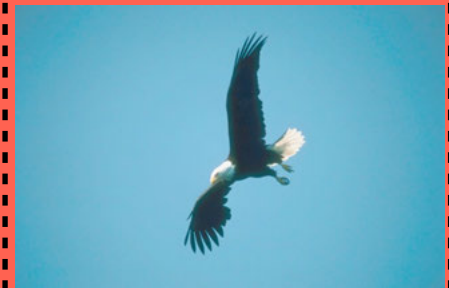

Shark

Horse

Chicken

Eagle

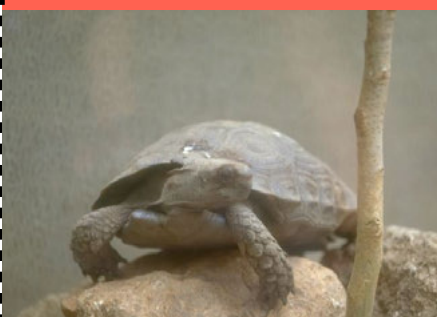

Snail

Hermit crab

Mussel

Tortoise

Armadillo

Whelk

Lobster

Shrimp

Crayfish

Scorpion

Crab

Spider

Jellyfish

Octopus

Worm

Slug

Leech

Ragworm